It's His Call:

BEST BID HAND OF THE WEEK

A lively set of bridge hands graced the 40+ tables in play on Sunday afternoon during the Premier Pair Day. My partner, made a call on Board 4 that set the stage for us to reach a grand slam in hearts that qualifies as the best bid of the tournament (that I was privileged to either see or hear about):

Bill Parks drove over 1,000 miles to our regional to play with Barry Harper and Hanna Moon. This is the second year in a row that we've been visited by Barry and a client. Bill comes in at halftime in the long knockout matches.

Playing in the John Boeder Memorial Barometer Qualifier, Bill opened 2N. His partner, your bulletin editor, trotted out a puppet stayman 3C call.

Bill, in most amazing fashion found a 3D bid promising one or both 4 card majors. Those of you who play puppet stayman are aware that the book response to puppet is to show a 5 card major, i.e. 3S. That bid would not excite the South hand and led to many 6N contracts.

I bid 3S promising 4H and the auction proceeded:

- 4H setting trump: 4S Kickback RKC
- 5H 2 keycards + HQ 5S King ask
- 5N Spade K 6C Gr. Slam interest
- 7H

Only 4 pairs in 41 found the grand slam
 What a thoughtful bidding plan!!

Many thanks to the Board members of Units 103 and 178 who nearly unanimously agreed to make up the few hundred dollar shortfall from this year's GNT District finals, so that the $3,000 profit target could be met.

Minnesota has set a precedent: any Unit or combination of Units are welcome to host the GNT District Finals with the understanding that the sponsoring units will contribute any shortfall from the district final event so that the $3,000 profit target can be met.

Mike Cassel, the D14 GNT coordinator has already discussed strategies with Larry Brobst who is likely to be the DIC in Des Moines next May, to assist the district in minimizing expense line items.

District 14 is fast moving to become one of the leaders in the entire ACBL in terms of the support given to its district representatives to travel to the GNT Nationals.

Where the Wild Things are

Sunday's bridge players enjoyed a nice free meal with beverage chicken breast with a cream sauce, carrots broccoli and rice after the afternoon session on Sunday.

Murray Applebaum and Tim Wernz shared their fond memories for the late John Boeder. In fitting fashion, Tim and his partner Irwin Boris, made a late charge in the evening session to take first overall in the John Boeder Memorial Barometer Game. Very cool.

We hope that Sunday's players will let their friends know how much they enjoyed the day, so that we can build the table count should we try for a repeat performance.

The wild things..... well let's look at Board 21:

EW have a massive fit in the majors, while NS hold 10 card fits in both minors. Here is a chart of frequencies of scores between the 4 sections in play

EW	Afreq	BCD	Side	I/N
200	4	1
480	3	6	4	4
500			4	1
750	2		1	1
800	1	1
980		1
1210	3			1

You can go online to see the section recaps to see which EW pairs scored the best in each section.

Note that 4 of 13 results in the Boeder qualifying set reached slam, but only 1 in the B/C/D, none in the side game, and only 1 in the I/N game.

I think you can draw some inferences from the score frequencies. The more experienced players have more competitive auctions and a wider variance in results. I tried to poll as many of the players as possible who reached the par EW spot: 6 spades.

Judy Nassar bid 2 hearts after the 1D opening was overcalled with 1S and advanced by her RHO with 2D. That set the stage for knowledge of the double suit fit. When Barry Purrington raised hearts Judy blasted into slam and was rewarded with a +1210.

Sue Himel also received the necessary clues from auction to attain +1210. Larry Delfs and Kerry Brothers also scored up 1210, but I did not hear their auction.

I found no North player who mentioned their club suit over West's 4S call, a bid that might have clarified the strong two suited minor suit fit.

No EWs in the side game realized the slam potential, though the 4 500s seem to indicate that the 6 level did not belong to them as they collected 500, presumably from 6minor doubled.
